2010 ANTLERLESS GUIDEBOOK

Prepare for big changes

If you hunt Utah's big game species, whether they're antlered or antlerless, you need to know about changes that will happen in the 2011 season.

The first and most noticeable change is that the traditional Big Game Guidebook will not be printed before the big game application period, which will be in April 2011.

Instead, a combination of online tools and other printed materials will provide essential details about the 2011 big game hunts and how to apply for them. Visit wildlife.utah.gov in late March 2011 to see maps, boundaries, hunt tables and application dates.

To learn more about this approach—and to preview other possible changes, such as hunt restructuring—see the article on page 18.

There are fewer changes planned for 2010. You'll find new hunts for antlerless deer and elk (see the hunt tables on page 19) and more flexibility for rifle elk hunters (see page 9).

Whether you're a first-time hunter or a seasoned pro, we hope you have a fun, safe and successful hunt in 2010.

This guidebook summarizes the rules and laws that regulate antlerless hunting in Utah. You can find the full text of these rules and laws at wildlife.utah.gov/rules or at the nearest Division office.

This guidebook is a proclamation of the Utah Wildlife Board. If you have feedback or suggestions for board members, you can find their contact information online at wildlife.utah.gov.

HIGHLIGHTS

What's new this year?

Additional antlerless hunts: This year, the Division has added new hunts for antlerless deer and elk. For details, please see the hunt tables that begin on page 19.

More opportunity for elk hunters: Beginning this year, you might be able to use your antlerless elk permit while you're hunting buck deer or bull elk with any legal weapon. To learn more, see pages 9–10.

Depredation hunter pool: The Division occasionally enlists hunters to remove depredating animals. To learn more about this opportunity, see the information box on page 4.

See e-mail for results: Beginning this year, you will no longer receive a printed letter that contains your Antlerless drawing results. Instead, you will receive an e-mail that lists your results. For more information about obtaining your results, see page 12.

Boundary changes: Some antlerless hunt boundaries have changed this year. Visit wildlife.utah.gov/maps to find a map and description of the area you want to hunt.

And remember

Hunting license required: Before you can apply for a 2010 antlerless permit, bonus point or preference point, you must have a valid Utah hunting or combination license. Please see page 7 for more information.

Apply for permits online or by phone: If you plan to hunt antlerless game in Utah this year, you must apply for a permit online or by phone no later than June 17, 2010. There's an 11 p.m. deadline for online applications and a 6 p.m. deadline for phone applications. To apply, simply visit wildlife.utah.gov or call any Division office.

Opportunity for youth: Twenty percent of the permits for antlerless deer and elk and doe pronghorn have been reserved for hunters 18 or under. For more information, please see page 13.

Antlerless elk control permits: Did you obtain a permit to hunt in southeastern Utah this fall? If so, you may be eligible to purchase an antlerless elk-control permit. To learn more about this opportunity and to see which hunting units are eligible, please see the information box on page 11.

Harvest reporting and your chance to win prizes: The Division encourages all hunters to voluntarily report the results of their antlerless hunts, even if they don't harvest an animal. If you participate, you'll automatically be entered into a prize drawing! To learn more about this opportunity, see page 19.

Multiple elk permits: You may obtain two elk permits—provided one or both of the permits are antlerless—but you can only apply for or obtain one antlerless elk permit in the drawing. For more information, please see the information box on page 10.

Corrections: If errors are found in this guidebook after it is printed, the Division will correct them in the online copy. Visit wildlife.utah.gov/guidebooks to view all of the Division's guidebooks.

Protection from discrimination: The Division receives federal financial assistance from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the U.S. Department of the Interior and its bureaus prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex. ## Take a closer look at the rules

This guidebook summarizes Utah's big game hunting laws and rules. Although it is a convenient quick-reference document for Utah big game regulations, it is not an all-encompassing resource.

For an in-depth look at the state's big game hunting laws and rules, visit wildlife.utah.gov/rules.

You can use the references in the guidebook—such as Utah Code § 23-20-25 and Utah Administrative Rule R657-5-24—to search the Division's Web site for the detailed statute or rule that underpins the guidebook summary.

If you have questions about a particular rule, call or visit the nearest Division office.

Private lands: The Division cannot guarantee access to any private land. If you plan to hunt—or engage in any other wildlife-related activities—on private lands, you must obtain WRITTEN permission from the landowner or the landowner's authorized representative.

Division funding: The Division is mostly funded by the sale of hunting and fishing licenses and through federal aid made possible by an excise tax on the sale of firearms and other hunting- and fishing-related equipment.

Depredation hunts

When deer, elk or pronghorn cause damage to agricultural crops, the Division may hold hunts that are not listed in this guide. These hunts are called depredation hunts. They may occur on short notice, involve small areas and are often limited to only a few hunters.

The Depredation hunter pool application was not included in the 2010 Big Game guidebook. To apply for the pool, complete and submit an online application at wildlife.utah.gov/depredation.

SEASON DATES

Season dates vary. See the hunt tables beginning on page 19 for season date listings.

Don't lose your hunting and fishing privileges

If you commit a wildlife violation, you could lose the privilege of hunting and fishing in Utah. The Utah Division of Wildlife Resources can suspend the license of anyone who knowingly, intentionally or recklessly violates wildlife laws. Your license can be suspended for a wildlife violation if:

- You are convicted.
- You plead guilty or no contest.
- You enter a plea in abeyance.

You will be notified of any action against your privilege after criminal proceedings conclude. And remember, if your license is suspended in Utah, you may not be permitted to hunt or fish in most other states. (Visit ianrc.org to see a map of participating states.)

BASIC REQUIREMENTS

Are you getting excited about this year's antlerless hunt? Before you apply for a hunting permit, make sure you meet Utah's age, hunter education and license requirements.

Are you old enough?

Utah Code § 23-19-22

Before you can buy a hunting license and apply for an antlerless permit, you must meet the following requirements:

- Successfully complete the state's Hunter Education course. (For more information, see wildlife.utah.gov/huntereducation.)
- Be at least 12 years old by your hunt date.

Note: If you're 11 years old—but you'll be 12 by Dec. 31, 2010—you may apply for and obtain an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit. However, you cannot hunt until the day you turn 12. Be sure to check hunt dates before applying. All sales are final.

All hunters under the age of 16 must be accompanied in the field by a parent, legal guardian or responsible person 21 years of age or older. For more information on this requirement, see the information box on page 7.

Have you passed hunter education?

Utah Code § 23-19-11 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-23

If you were born after Dec. 31, 1965, you must provide proof that you've passed a hunter education course approved by the Division before you can apply for or obtain a hunting license or an antlerless permit.

This proof can be a hunter education course Certificate of Completion (this certificate is called a "blue card" in Utah) or a hunting license from a previous year with your hunter education number noted on the license.

If you become a Utah resident, and you've completed a hunter education course in another state, province or country, you must obtain a blue card before you can apply for or buy a resident hunting license or a resident antlerless permit. You can obtain a Utah blue card at any Division office by providing proof that you've completed a hunter education course approved by the Division. The card costs $10.

Residency

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-2(2)(r)

You qualify as a resident if:

- you have a fixed permanent home and principal establishment in Utah for six consecutive months immediately preceding the purchase of a license or permit, and you do NOT claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

You will retain your Utah residency if:

- you leave Utah to serve in the armed forces of the United States, or for religious or educational purposes, and you do NOT claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

If you are a member of the armed forces of the United States, you and your dependents are residents as of the date you report for duty under assigned orders in Utah, if:

- you are NOT on temporary duty in Utah and you do NOT claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

- you present a copy of your assignment orders to a Division office to verify your residency.

If you are a nonresident attending an institution of higher learning in Utah as a full-time student you may qualify as a resident if:

- you have been present in Utah for 60 consecutive days immediately preceding the purchase of the license or permit, and you do NOT claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

Your Utah resident license or permit is invalid if:

- you purchase a resident license for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

You DO NOT qualify as a resident if:

- you are an absentee landowner paying property tax on land in Utah.

For more information on how to complete Utah's hunter education course, visit wildlife.utah.gov/huntereducation.

Do you have a license?

Utah Code §§ 23-19-1, 23-19-22 and 23-20-3

You must have a current Utah hunting or combination (hunting and fishing) license to apply for any antlerless permits, bonus points or preference points. You will have the opportunity to purchase a license while applying for permits or points. Licenses are also available at wildlife.utah.gov and from license agents and Division offices.

Be sure to take a quick look at the date on your license before you apply for any permits or points. As long as your license is valid on the date you submit your application, you don't have to purchase a new license for the actual hunt.

For example, assume that your license expires on June 20, 2010. If you apply before that date, you do not have to purchase a new license for your hunt in the fall. All hunting and combination licenses are valid for 365 days from the date of purchase.

Carry your permit

If you are successful in obtaining an antlerless permit, you must have it on your person while hunting. You cannot alter your license or permit, nor can you sell, transfer or loan either of them to another person.

Adults must accompany young hunters

Utah Code § 23-20-20

While hunting big game, a person under 16 years old must be accompanied by his or her parent, legal guardian or other responsible person who is 21 years of age or older and who has been approved by the parent or guardian.

The Division encourages adults to be familiar with hunter education guidelines or to complete the hunter education course before accompanying youth into the field.

While in the field, the youth and the adult must remain close enough for the adult to see and provide verbal assistance to the young hunter. Using electronic devices, such as walkie-talkies or cell phones, does not meet this requirement.

ANTLERLESS HUNTS

Utah offers antlerless hunts each year. These hunts serve two purposes: they help ensure that populations remain at sustainable, manageable levels, and they remove animals that pose depredation problems. Depending on the permit you obtain, you could hunt antlerless deer, elk or moose or doe pronghorn. The following section describes the species you can hunt, the weapons you can use and the types of permits that are available.

Antlerless deer hunting

Utah Code § 23-20-3 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-28

An “antlerless deer” is a deer without antlers or with antlers five inches or shorter (R657-5-2(2)(a)).

To hunt antlerless deer, you must first obtain an antlerless deer permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one antlerless deer—per antlerless deer tag—in the area and season specified on your permit.

You may not hunt on a Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) unless you obtain an antlerless deer permit for that CWMU.

If you obtain an antlerless deer permit, you may not hunt during any other antlerless deer hunt or obtain any other antlerless deer permit.

Additional opportunity

There is some flexibility if you are an antlerless deer permit holder who also possesses a permit to hunt the following seasons:

- General archery buck deer
- General muzzleloader buck deer
- Limited-entry archery buck deer
- Limited-entry muzzleloader buck deer

If your buck deer permit and antlerless deer permit are for the same area—and you use the appropriate archery or muzzleloader equipment specified for your current hunting season—you may use your antlerless permit during the buck deer season. However, you may not use your buck deer permit during the antlerless season.

Antlerless elk hunting

Utah Code § 23-20-3 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-34

An “antlerless elk” is an elk without antlers or with antlers five inches or shorter (R657-5-2(2)(b)).

To hunt antlerless elk, you must first obtain an antlerless elk permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one antlerless elk in the area and season specified on your permit.

You may not hunt on a Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) unless you obtain an antlerless elk permit for that CWMU.

You may obtain two elk permits each year, and at least one of those must be an antlerless elk permit. If you plan to obtain two elk permits, please note that a hunter's choice elk permit is considered a bull elk permit. You may apply for only one antlerless elk permit in the antlerless drawing.

If you do not obtain an antlerless elk permit in the drawing, you may be eligible to purchase up to two remaining antlerless elk permits.

Additional opportunity

There is some flexibility if you are an antlerless elk permit holder who also possesses a permit to hunt the following seasons:

- General buck deer (archery, muzzleloader or any legal weapon)
- General bull elk (archery, muzzleloader or any legal weapon)
- Limited-entry buck deer (archery, muzzleloader or any legal weapon)
- Limited-entry bull elk (archery, muzzleloader or any legal weapon)

If your buck deer or bull elk permit and your antlerless elk permit are for the same area, you may use your antlerless elk permit during your buck deer or bull elk season. However, you may not use your buck deer or bull elk permit during the antlerless season.

Doe pronghorn hunting

Utah Code § 23-20-3 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-36

A “doe pronghorn” is a pronghorn without horns or with horns five inches or shorter (R657-5-2(2)(j)).

To hunt a doe pronghorn, you must first obtain a doe pronghorn permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one doe pronghorn—per doe pronghorn tag—in the area and season specified on your permit.

If you already have a 2010 pronghorn permit, you may not apply for or obtain a doe pronghorn permit or preference point.

Note: You may only obtain one pronghorn permit—of any kind—during the 2010 season.

You may not hunt on a Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) unless you obtain a doe pronghorn permit for that CWMU.

Antlerless moose hunting

Utah Code § 23-20-3 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-37

An “antlerless moose” is a moose without antlers or with antlers shorter than its ears (R657-5-2(2)(c)).

To hunt antlerless moose, you must first obtain an antlerless moose permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one antlerless moose in the area and season specified on your permit.

If you already have a 2010 moose permit, you may not apply for or obtain an antlerless moose permit or bonus point.

Note: You may only obtain one moose permit—of any kind—during the 2010 season.

You may not hunt on a Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) unless you obtain an antlerless moose permit for that CWMU.

Collared big game

The Division has placed radio collars on some antlerless big game. These collars provide valuable data to biologists.

If possible, please avoid harvesting animals that are wearing collars.

OBTAINING A PERMIT

Your first, and possibly only, chance to obtain a Utah antlerless permit is through the state's antlerless drawing. This section describes the types of permits that are available and identifies key dates. You'll also find everything you need to know about the application process, waiting periods, and bonus and preference points.

Antlerless permits

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

You can apply for all of the following antlerless permits in the 2010 drawing:

- One antlerless deer permit (except in areas where two-doe permits are available)
- One antlerless elk permit
- One antlerless moose permit
- One doe pronghorn permit (except in areas where two-doe permits are available)

Note: If you drew a pronghorn permit in the 2010 big game drawing, you may not apply for a doe pronghorn permit or preference point. Likewise, if you drew a moose permit in the 2010 big game drawing, you may not apply for an antlerless moose permit or bonus point.

Antlerless application period

Utah Admin. Rules R657-62-19 & R657-42

This year, the application period opens on June 1, 2010 and closes on June 17, 2010. Here's what you need to know in order to apply for an antlerless permit, a bonus point or a preference point:

- Before you can apply, you must have a valid Utah hunting or combination license. If you don't already have one of these licenses, you can buy one online when you apply.
- You can apply online at wildlife.utah.gov until 11 p.m. on June 17.

If you need help with your online application, please call any Division office before 6 p.m. on June 17, 2010. A Division employee will be available to help you!

Multiple elk permits

Utah Code § 23-19-22 and Utah Admin. Rules R657-62-19 & R657-5-34

You may obtain a maximum of two elk permits each year—provided one or both of the permits are antlerless—but you can only apply for or obtain one antlerless elk permit in the drawing. You may obtain two elk permits in any one of the following combinations:

- One bull elk permit and one antlerless permit
- One bull elk permit and one antlerless elk control permit (to learn more about elk control permits, please see the information box on page 11)
- Two antlerless permits
- One hunter's choice permit and one antlerless permit

For the purposes of obtaining two elk permits, a hunter's choice elk permit is considered a bull elk permit. An antlerless elk control permit is considered an antlerless permit. Beginning July 21, 2010, eligible hunters may purchase additional antlerless elk permits after the drawing. The permits will be available on a first-come, first-served basis through license agents, Division offices and online at wildlife.utah.gov.

Antlerless application fees

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-12

There is a nonrefundable $10 application fee for each permit, bonus point or preference point you apply for. Application fees, license fees and any donations you've authorized will be charged to your credit or debit card when you apply. Permit fees will be charged after the drawing, if you are successful.

You can use American Express, Discover, MasterCard and VISA credit or debit cards as payment, and they must be valid through August 2010. You can also use a pre-paid credit card. If you have questions about using a pre-paid credit card, check with your financial institution for more information.

Antlerless drawing process

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

Antlerless permits are drawn in the following order:

1. Antlerless moose
2. Youth elk
3. Antlerless elk
4. Youth deer
5. Antlerless deer
6. Youth pronghorn
7. Doe pronghorn

Beginning July 21, any remaining permits will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Sales final—exceptions

Utah Code § 23-19-38 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-42

Some hunters successfully obtain permits and then realize—for one reason or another—that they won't be able to use those permits. In most cases, the Division cannot refund the cost of the permit, but there are some exceptions. The Division may provide a refund under the following circumstances:

- The Division or the Utah Wildlife Board cancels the hunt for which you obtained the permit.
- The Division determines that it collected a fee from you by mistake. If you believe the Division collected a fee from you by mistake, please contact the agency. The Division has a committee that reviews these mistakes.
- You become ill or suffer an injury that prevents you from participating in the hunt you obtained a permit for. To receive a refund, you must provide verification from a physician of your illness or injury. You must also surrender the permit before the season the permit was issued for ends. You cannot receive a refund if you hunted.
- If you're a member of the United States Armed Forces, or a public health or public safety organization, you might be eligible for a refund if you're mobilized or deployed in the interest of national defense or emergency, and your mobilization or deployment prevents you from participating in the hunting activity you bought the license or permit for.

A refund may also be granted if the permit recipient dies before they can participate in the hunt.

Elk control permits available

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-34

During the 2010 season, the Division wants hunters to harvest as many antlerless elk as possible from four hunting units in southeastern Utah:

- Henry Mountains
- Nine Mile, Range Creek
- San Rafael, North
- San Juan, East of US-191

If you obtain a permit (including general season) for bison, buck deer or bull elk on any of the above units, you have the option of purchasing an antlerless elk control permit. The elk control permit allows you to harvest an antlerless elk in the same unit where you'll already be hunting bison, deer or elk.

To obtain an antlerless elk control permit, please visit a license agent or any Division office beginning July 21, 2010.

Important dates

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

Please see the resident definition on page 6 to learn whether you qualify as a resident.

When you submit your application, you'll be charged a nonrefundable $10 application fee for each species or bonus point you apply for. You will not be charged a permit fee unless you draw a permit.

June 17: Deadline for permit applications, bonus points and preference points

Applications for antlerless hunting permits, bonus points and preference points must be submitted through wildlife.utah.gov no later than 11 p.m. on June 17, 2010. Please remember that you must have

If you draw a permit, you'll receive your permit in the mail in August.

Please be aware that if you receive your permit, and then the credit card you used for payment is refused, your permit becomes invalid and you may not participate in the antlerless hunt. If this happens, please call 1-800-221-0659 to resolve the problem.

July 21: Remaining antlerless permits available

Any antlerless permits remaining after the drawing may be obtained beginning at 7 a.m. on July 21, 2010 at wildlife.utah.gov and from license agents and Division offices. Remaining permits are available on a first-come, first-served basis. You must have a valid hunting or combination license to buy one of these permits.

Note: The hours when license agents are open for business vary; you should contact the agent you plan to visit before July 21 to learn when they're open for business. A list of license agents is available at wildlife.utah.gov/licenses/agents.php.

You may obtain a maximum of two elk permits. Please see "Antlerless elk hunting" on pages 8–9.

Applying as a group

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-7

Instead of applying as an individual hunter, you and your friends and family can apply together as a group.

Everyone in the group must apply during the same online session—you cannot add group members at a later date.

Both residents and nonresidents can apply together. However, if you're a Utah resident and you decide to apply with a nonresident, make sure nonresident permits are available for each hunt your group is applying for. If permits are not available for everyone in your group, the entire group will not be allowed to draw for that hunt unit.

Up to four hunters can apply together for antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permits. Group applications are not accepted for antlerless moose hunts.

Please remember that if you're a youth, and you want to be included among those who draw for the antlerless permits reserved for youth, you must apply as an individual hunter. Do NOT apply as part of a group.

When you apply, all fees for all applicants in your group must be charged to one credit or debit card. If your group is successful in the drawing, all of the applicants in your group who have valid applications will receive a permit.

Waiting periods

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

Waiting periods keep successful applicants out of the drawing for a few years. This gives unsuccessful applicants a better chance at drawing a permit in the

Youth antlerless drawing process

Utah Code § 23-19-22 and Utah Admin. Rules R657-62-19 & R657-5-4

Twenty percent of the antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn permits are reserved for hunters who will be 18 years of age or younger on Aug. 21, 2010.

If you'll be 18 years of age or younger on Aug. 21, you can participate in the youth drawing by submitting an application as an individual hunter. You won't be included in the youth drawing if you apply as a member of a group.

future. The antlerless moose hunt is the only antlerless hunt with a waiting period.

Antlerless moose

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-19

The waiting period for antlerless moose is five years. However, if you buy an antlerless moose CWMU permit from a private landowner, the waiting period does not apply.

Permits obtained after the drawing

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-13

If you're under a waiting period for a certain species, you can still obtain any permit that remains for that species after the drawing, but your waiting period will start over.

For example, if you have two years left on your antlerless moose waiting period, and you buy an antlerless moose permit that remains available after the drawing, you'll begin a new five-year waiting period. The new waiting period will prevent you from applying for an antlerless moose permit for the next five years.

Bonus points

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-8

Bonus points in the antlerless drawing apply to antlerless moose only. A bonus point is awarded for each unsuccessful application to hunt antlerless moose.

If you do not want to hunt antlerless moose this year, you may apply for a bonus point only by select-

Get written permission before you apply

If you want to hunt on private property, you must obtain written permission from the landowner before you can hunt. Ideally, you should have permission before you even apply for a permit.

If you obtain written permission in advance, you know you'll be able to use the permit if you draw it.

Of course, if you do hunt on private land, you should always respect the landowners and their properties.

You can show respect by following the landowner's rules and by picking up any litter you see, even if it isn't yours. And remember to thank the landowners, if you happen to see them while hunting.

The Division cannot guarantee access to private land, and the agency does not have the names of landowners who own property where hunts occur.

ing the appropriate hunt choice code (ANM) on the application and paying the $10 application fee.

You must have a current Utah hunting or combination license in order to apply for an antlerless moose bonus point.

If you are eligible for an antlerless moose permit, you are eligible to apply for an antlerless moose bonus point.

If you apply for both an antlerless moose permit and a bonus point, your application will be rejected.

How your bonus points work in the drawing

Fifty percent (rounded down) of the permits for each hunt unit number are reserved for applicants with the most bonus points.

You receive one random drawing number for your antlerless moose application and one for every bonus point you have for antlerless moose. Your lowest random number is used in the drawing.

In the drawing for antlerless moose, applications are sorted into groups by the number of bonus points, from highest to lowest. There's a group for hunters with three bonus points, one for hunters

Can you possess a weapon?

It is illegal under Utah Code § 76-10-503 to possess or use a firearm, muzzleloader, archery tackle, or any other dangerous weapon if you:

- Have been convicted of or are under indictment for any felony offense;
- Are on probation or parole for a felony offense;
- Are on parole from a secure facility;
- Have been adjudicated delinquent (juvenile) in the last seven years of an offense, which if committed by an adult would have been a felony;
- Are an unlawful user of a controlled substance;
- Have been found not guilty by reason of insanity for a felony offense;
- Have been found mentally incompetent to stand trial for a felony offense;
- Have been adjudicated mentally defective, as provided in the federal Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act;
- Have been committed to a mental institution;
- Are an alien who is illegally in the United States;
- Have been dishonorably discharged from the armed forces; or
- Have renounced your United States citizenship.

The purchase or possession of any hunting license, permit, tag or certificate of registration from the Division does not authorize the holder to legally possess or use a firearm, muzzleloader, archery tackle or any other dangerous weapon while hunting if they are otherwise restricted from possessing these weapons under Utah Code § 76-10-503.

with two bonus points and so forth. Applications are sorted from lowest to highest draw number, and permits are awarded in order.

You may surrender an antlerless moose permit before the season opening date to waive the waiting period and reinstate your bonus points, including a bonus point for the current year (just as if a permit had not been drawn).

You cannot apply for a hunt or receive a bonus point if either of the following conditions apply:

- You are currently under wildlife license suspension for big game hunting.
- You are currently under a waiting period for the species you want to hunt.

The Division began issuing bonus points for antlerless moose in 2006.

Preference points

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-9

Preference points are used to ensure that applicants who are unsuccessful, or who apply for a preference point in the drawing for antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn, will have first preference in the next year's drawing for the respective permits.

If you do not want to hunt antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn in the current year, you may apply for a preference point by inserting the appropriate hunt choice code on the application. You will be charged a $10 application fee for every preference point you apply for (limit one per species).

The application period is June 1–17, 2010. You must have a current Utah hunting or combination license in order to apply for preference points.

If you are eligible for an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit, you are eligible to apply for a preference point for that hunt.

You cannot apply for both a permit and a preference point for the same species. A preference point will not be issued if you are successful in drawing for the respective permit.

You will not forfeit your preference points if you obtain a permit that remains available after the drawing.

The Division began issuing preference points for antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn in 2006.

How your preference points work in the drawing

In the drawing, the antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn applications are sorted into groups by the number of preference points, from highest to lowest. There's a group for hunters with four preference points, one for hunters with three preference points and so forth. Within each group of preference points, the applications are then sorted from lowest to highest draw numbers. Permits are awarded in order, based on the hunt choice selected.

Preference points are averaged and rounded down when two or more applicants apply as a group. For example, if hunter A with three preference points and hunter B with zero preference points apply as a group, the preference points are averaged (1.5) and rounded down to one. Hunters with one preference point will be considered only after all groups or individuals with two or more preference points and before all groups or individuals with zero preference points.

In a second example, if hunter A with one preference point and hunter B with zero preference points apply as a group, the preference points are averaged (0.5) and rounded down to zero. This group with zero preference points will be considered after all groups or individuals with one or more preference points have been considered.

You may surrender your antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit before the season opening date to reinstate your preference points, including a preference point for the current year (just as if a permit had not been drawn).

You cannot apply for an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit or a preference point if you are currently under wildlife license suspension for big game hunting.

Preventing the spread of chronic wasting disease

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-44

If an elk, mule deer or white-tailed deer has been taken from an area in North America that has been diagnosed with chronic wasting disease (CWD), the following are the only parts of the animal you may bring into Utah:

- Meat that is cut and wrapped, either commercially or privately
- Quarters or other portions of meat (no part of the spinal column or head may be attached to the meat)
- Meat that is boned out
- Hides with no heads attached
- Skull plates with antlers attached, but the skull plates must be cleaned of all meat and tissue

- Antlers with no meat or tissue attached
- Upper canine teeth (also known as buglers, whistlers or ivories)
- Finished taxidermy heads

You can learn which areas in North America have been diagnosed with CWD by visiting wildlife.utah.gov/diseases/cwd/ or any Division office.

If you're not a resident of Utah, you can transport harvested elk, mule deer and white-tailed deer from areas that have CWD. However, you may not leave any part of the harvested animal in Utah, and you may not stay more than 24 hours in the state. In addition, your deer or elk may not be processed in Utah.

CAN I RIDE THIS TRAIL?

Learn the rules of the area before you hop on your ATV/OHV

You love to get out every weekend and try a new trail. Fortunately, Utah has plenty of public land where you can legally ride your all-terrain and off-highway vehicles (ATVs and OHVs).

Before you load up and hit the road, it's important to identify which government agency oversees the trails you plan to visit. Then, it's your responsibility to learn and follow the rules for that area.

There are many state and federal agencies that own and manage public land, including Utah Division of Wildlife Resources (DWR), Utah State Parks, School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration (SITLA), U.S. Forest Service (USFS), Bureau of Land Management and others.

Some of these agencies have recently overhauled their OHV regulations. For example, this year, the USFS began implementing new rules for motorized vehicle access in Dixie National Forest, and SITLA is finalizing a new plan for ATV use on lands in the La Sal Mountains. Other agencies are considering changes to their current plans.

Wherever you plan to ride, make sure you obtain the information you need for a fun, safe and lawful trip.

Hunting and OHVs

If you are riding an ATV or OHV while hunting, be considerate of other hunters and keep the following rules in mind:

- Begin hunting only after parking your machine at a designated parking area.
- Know and follow vehicle-use regulations for your hunting unit, so you don't ruin another hunter's trip.
- Stay on existing, authorized roads and trails.
- Ride ethically to protect natural resources, wildlife habitat and your riding privileges.
- Do not carry loaded firearms on and/or shoot from an OHV—it is illegal.
- Obey all of the age, helmet, out-of-state permit and registration regulations available at <http://stateparks.utah.gov/ohv>.

If you have general questions about riding an OHV in Utah, call 1-800-648-7433 or visit <http://stateparks.utah.gov/ohv>.

COOPERATIVE WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT UNITS

More than 60 percent of the rangelands that Utah's big game animals rely on in the winter are on private land. Unfortunately, this vital winter range is being threatened by human development.

Utah's Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) program provides incentives to preserve these lands and make them good places for wildlife for years to come.

How the program works

Public hunters who draw a CWMU permit can hunt on private lands enrolled in the CWMU program. In return, the landowners receive permits they can market to hunters. Without the program, most of these lands would remain closed to the public.

CWMUs comprise nearly two million acres of land in Utah. They'll provide more than 1,500 hunting permits for antlerless game in 2010. About 82 percent of those permits are available to Utah residents through the state's antlerless drawing.

How to participate

Before you can hunt on a CWMU, you must first obtain a CWMU permit. This permit is only valid for the species, sex and CWMU specified on the permit. Only residents may apply for antlerless CWMU permits through the drawing. Both residents and nonresidents can obtain CWMU permit vouchers directly from the landowner or operator.

Note: CWMU landowner association members and operators—and their spouses or dependant children—may not apply in the drawing for CWMU permits.

Obtain important information

If you draw a permit to hunt on a CWMU, you must contact the CWMU operator to obtain hunting dates, a map of the CWMU and a copy of the CWMU's rules. You can also find some helpful information online at wildlife.utah.gov/cwmu.

Complaint process

If you wish to lodge a complaint against a CWMU, you should contact the Division immediately. Biologists and conservation officers can supply you with a complaint form, or you can make the complaint in person or over the telephone. Because time is of the essence, you and the operator should make every effort to resolve your issues before they escalate to the Division level.

If your problem cannot be resolved locally, it will be passed to the CWMU Advisory Committee for review and action.

If you want to hunt it tomorrow, help us protect it today.

CHANGES IN 2011

If you hunt big game in Utah, you'll want to be aware of the changes planned for 2011. Some changes are definitely going to occur, while others are under discussion and will be decided by the Utah Wildlife Board in late 2010. Stay informed by visiting wildlife.utah.gov on a regular basis.

Changes to plan on

There are a few changes that will definitely occur in 2011.

First, the Utah Wildlife Board will set the 2011 Big Game and Antlerless seasons and hunt units in March 2011, instead of December 2010. The meeting has been scheduled for March because the board has asked Division biologists to incorporate harvest data from 2010 into the recommendations for 2011.

As a result, there will not be a traditional, printed Big Game guidebook available in January, and the 2011 Big Game application period will not occur until April.

All of the information you need to apply for a 2011 Big Game permit will be available online in late March 2011, before the application period opens. You'll find application dates, permit fees, basic requirements, maps and hunt tables online at wildlife.utah.gov.

Then, after the Big Game application period ends in April 2011, the Division will print a combined 2011 Big Game and Antlerless field regulations manual. It will contain species information and the regulations you must follow while hunting.

Finally, the information you need to apply for a 2011 Antlerless permit will be available at wildlife.utah.gov in May 2011. There will not be a traditional, printed 2011 Antlerless guidebook.

Proposed changes

In late 2009, the Division collected information from the public about proposed changes to the Big Game hunt structure. You can see the proposed changes online at wildlife.utah.gov/hunts2011.php.

If you have feedback about these proposals, please plan to attend your local Regional Advisory Council meeting in November 2010. You'll find the meeting schedule online at wildlife.utah.gov/public\_meetings.

In December 2010, the Utah Wildlife Board will decide whether to implement the new hunt structure for the 2011 Big Game season. If the board approves the new hunt structure, the changes will take place in 2011 and the Division will provide more information on its website.

Stay informed

Your best resource for staying ahead of the planned and proposed changes is to visit wildlife.utah.gov at regular intervals. That's where you'll find the tools and information you need to easily navigate and enjoy the 2011 hunting seasons.

Antlerless harvest reporting

Did you obtain an antlerless permit this year? If so, you'll have the chance to participate in a voluntary harvest-reporting program after you complete your hunt.

This program will help the Division obtain more detailed information about the antlerless game harvested in 2010. It also gives you the chance to win a prize, just for reporting some basic information about your antlerless hunt.

After you finish your hunt (whether or not you harvest an animal), visit wildlife.utah.gov/harvestreporting and click the "Report your harvest" button at the top of the page. Then, you can log in and complete your antlerless online harvest report.

If you prefer to complete your harvest report over the phone, call 1-800-221-0659 at any time.

As soon as you submit your report—online or by phone—you will be automatically entered into a prize drawing. You don't have to fill out a separate entry form.

To be entered into the prize drawing, you must submit your report by Feb. 28, 2011.

Although this program isn't mandatory, we strongly encourage you to participate. Your efforts will help us obtain the information we need to better manage Utah's big game herds.
